On 27 September 1951 the Health Department of Trade Unions (Ustredni rada odborů (URO)) conferred with sickness insurance doctors at Sickness Insurance, Prague II., Kliment'ska ul. The subject of the meeting was the increasing absenteeism among workers on medical grounds and the means of preventing it. An observer from the Communist Party was present and took part in the discussion. He accused the doctors of being too lenient towards their patients and threatened the doctors with the responsibility for the growing absenteeism.
